

Test your association/project group

HOW GREEN ARE YOU REALLY?

Questions	Answer A= 1 point	Answer B= 2 points	Answer C= 3 points
There is a meeting in your local association/project group. What are you having for dinner?	Pasta Bolognese.	Beetroot steak with the option to choose bacon as a side.	Chili sin carne with vegan cream fresh.
Where does your power come from?	The power outlet?	We have not made a decision on which power supplier we should have, but we do our best to save power.	Our power comes from renewable energy sources and we think a lot about saving power.
How often do you use disposable plastics, such as disposable plates?	For most events. Who wants to do the dishes?	We use it sometimes, but try to buy things in biodegradable material. So is that ok?	No way. Better to eat with your bare hands.
Do you sort waste in your premises?	No, you don't.	We take glass to the glass container.	We sort all 10 waste fractions.
You need t-shirts made for volunteers at an event. Which t-shirts do you buy?	The cheapest new t-shirts we can find, so as many people as possible can get them.	New t-shirts certified according to the Global Organic Textile Standard.	Our volunteers bring old t-shirts for us to print on.
You're about to have a meeting and there are a lot of attachments. Printer in the documents?	Yes, it's the easiest way to keep up.	We print single copies and make sure to print on both sides.	No, the documents can be accessed digitally.

THE RESULT

How many points have you got?

6-8 points

You are at the beginning of your sustainability journey. Right now, you're prioritizing other things over climate.

There are many reasons for this, but maybe there is potential to incorporate a little more sustainability? The greening checklist has suggestions for both small and big steps to help you on your journey to greening your organization or project.

9-14 points

You have climate on the radar in your organization/project. You try hard to make sustainable choices, but sometimes there are other things that are more important than climate. There may be good reasons for this, such as accessibility. And bacon is also just a little delicious. You are well on your way to incorporating climate into your practices, but there is room for improvement. Check out the greening checklist for inspiration and see if you have any blind spots.

15-18 points

You are true climate heroes! You care about the climate and biodiversity and go to great lengths to make sustainable choices. Maybe your friends sometimes think it's going a bit too far, but so what if the polar bears are happy with your choices? Even if you're already doing a lot, climate heroes always wonder if they can do even more.

Check out the green checklist and see if there are any suggestions for more actions you can take in your organization/project.
